Description

Wonderful 18th century English gouache on paper of a 18th century English scene of a groom with a horse in a landscape.
One of a set of five all framed in Hogarth frames.
L.Green was a member of a family of painters active during the late 18th century in there UK painting sporting scenes and miniature portraits.
This is a very good 18th century work of art and as a set of five they are a very rare set.
This painting and the set came from a private collection in the UK.
